

Person Specification
Road Safety Instructor

Part A

The following criteria (experience, skills and qualifications) will be used to short-list at the application stage:

Essential

- Demonstrate an enthusiastic approach to delivering road safety training and education programmes to children, young people and adults.
- Flexible to meet the demands of a range of training programmes
- Ability and confidence to communicate effectively with school staff and the public in all age groups.
- Ability to complete basic paperwork which may include basic arithmetic
- Ability to ride a bike with confidence and willingness to develop further riding skills including National Standard cycle training and other job related training, for example risk assessments.
- Effective team worker
- Experience of working effectively with the general public

Desirable

- Registered National Standard Bikeability Cycle Instructor.

Part B

The following will be further explored at the interview stage:

- References
- Certificates

Additional requirements

- Enhanced DBS clearance
- Access to a car and bike for work.
- Able to work weekends, evenings and non-term time when required.