

North Tyneside Council

Member of the Independent Remuneration Panel

Person Specification

Essential Criteria

- A keen interest in and a reasonable understanding of local government and of the role of councillors in the political management of a local authority.
- Strong analytical capability, including the ability to question, probe and seek clarification about complex issues.
- Ability to consider matters without regard to personal political views.
- Ability to demonstrate high standards of personal integrity and be objective, independent and impartial.
- Excellent inter-personal skills.
- A strong connection with the North Tyneside area, either through residency, employment or business.
- Not an elected member or employee of North Tyneside Council within the past 3 years.
- Does not have close business or professional links with the Council.
- Not a relative or close friend of an elected Member of North Tyneside Council.
- Not disqualified from becoming a Member of the Council
- Ability to attend a number of Panel meetings in any calendar year.