

Do you have the passion to make a difference in a local authority dedicated to improving the wellbeing of people in Hartlepool?

We are looking for two public health professionals to lead us through an exciting period to integrate and champion the public health agenda in our services and in the wider community.

CHILDREN'S & JOINT COMMISSIONING SERVICES DEPARTMENT

POST 1 - Director of Public Health £88,325 - £94,635

POST 2 - Deputy Director of Public Health £66,245 - £75,708

The salaries for both posts are inclusive of a 10% market forces supplement. They are permanent positions where full or part time hours can be considered.

Working together these two key posts will develop and deliver the public health agenda to improve the standards that will make a lasting difference to the life chances of children and adults in an area that has some of the most significant inequalities in the country. We want to use your significant aptitude for managing change, leading and inspiring others to build on previous successes and address remaining challenges, making a real difference within Hartlepool.

Full information on both posts is available at www.northeastjobs.org.uk

For an informal and confidential discussion contact Sally Robinson, Director of Children's & Joint Commissioning Services on (01429) 523910.

Close Date: 28th September 2018 by 12 noon

Interview dates: Director of Public Health Monday 22nd October / Deputy Director of Public Health Monday 5th November

Why choose us?

Hartlepool is an ambitious council with a track record of excellence providing an exciting workplace for dedicated professionals with an ambition to make a difference.

We recognise the range of challenges we face and we are determined in our approach to overcome them in order to achieve our vision for Hartlepool.

As a smaller authority, we offer the perfect opportunity for you to make your mark at this exciting period of change for us.

The next three years will be a defining period in the history of Hartlepool and our ambition is that the town will be a vibrant, welcoming and inspiring place to live, work, invest and grow up in.
