

Member Committee's

Hartlepool Council became a unitary authority in April 1996, having previously been part of Cleveland County Council. It is the smallest of five small unitary authorities in the Tees Valley sub-region and in population terms is one of the smallest unitary authorities in the country. It has a net revenue budget in 2017/2018 of £73m.

It has 33 Councillors. The political balance is as follows:-

Conservative Group	3
Labour Group	19
Hartlepool Independent Group	5
Putting Hartlepool First	4
Independents	2

The Council moved to a Committee System of governance, in May 2013, followed a comprehensive public consultation exercise and referendum and at the Extraordinary Council meeting held on the 2 May 2013, Councillor Christopher Akers-Belcher was appointed as the Leader of the Council.

Hartlepool Borough Council is an equal opportunities employer.

Under the new governance arrangements, Hartlepool's Overview and Scrutiny function is focused upon its statutory Scrutiny responsibilities in relation to health and crime and disorder, as defined within the Health and Social Care Act 2012 and Police and Crime Act 2006. Responsibility for fulfilling these responsibilities sits with the Audit and Governance Committee, the membership of which includes any Member, with the exception of those who sit on the Finance and Policy Committee.

Membership of the Audit and Governance Committee is as follows:-

Cllr Loynes Chair
Cllr Tennant Vice Chair
Cllr Belcher
Cllr Cook
Cllr Hamilton
Cllr Beck
Cllr Hall

Plus - Independent Member(s) and Parish Council representatives when dealing with standards functions and one fully co-opted representative from a responsible local policing body during consideration of Crime and Disorder Committee matters.

The Council also has two community forums serving the 'north and coastal' and 'south and central' areas of the town. All Councillors are represented on one of these consultative forums.

The Council has a detailed written constitution, which includes decision-making procedures and a delegated decision-making scheme.
