THE ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

We are seeking to appoint, with effect from 1st September 2019, an inspirational and enthusiastic teacher of English who has the ability to engage and enthuse pupils with their passion for the subject.

This is an exciting opportunity to join a successful and aspirational school. We are seeking an experienced teacher who is enthusiastic, energetic and ambitious to join our well qualified, committed staff and add capacity to our English Department. Staff in the English Department are committed to providing outstanding teaching and learning which, in turn, enables students to fulfil their potential and achieve excellent academic results. As one of the school's strongest curriculum areas, our dynamic, forward thinking English Department has consistently ensured that students readily engage with the subject and meet or exceed expectations. In the latest County Inspection, (March 2015), all aspects of the Department were rated as outstanding.

The successful candidate will be committed to delivering outstanding lessons and will have the ability to teach across the age and ability range at Key Stages 3 and 4. Pupils are taught in ability classes at both Key Stages and we follow the AQA GCSE specification in Language and Literature. We are committed to providing a range of extra-curricular opportunities and we also provide pupils with a wide range of interventions and targeted support to ensure that they reach their potential. Excellent subject knowledge and a passion for delivering innovative and inspirational lessons are essential criteria for this post.

We offer the opportunity to work alongside a supportive, successful and hardworking English team. The team is made up of nine teachers and two HLTAs, who share an unrelenting expectation of high standards from all students. This vacancy is an excellent opportunity to join a forward thinking Department with a strong team ethic; the ideal environment in which to develop your teaching career.
