2. The post holder will undertake a range of administration duties as well as undertaking teaching duties.

3. All staff is required to contribute to curriculum and self development

Duties undertaken by the postholder may include being the lead academic for a designated course(s) and/or course tutor to designated courses, these duties will extend to (but are not limited to) responsibility for:

- Identification and assessing Learners' Needs
- Planning and Designing Learning programmes and sessions
- Developing Learning programmes and sessions in line with best-recommended practice.
- Delivering Learning and Teaching programmes/activities
- Assessing the Outcome of Learning and Learners' Achievements
- Monitor, Evaluate and improve quality and effectiveness of own practice and learning/teaching programmes and sessions.
- Ensure the effective recruitment, retention and achievement of students.

Any other duties commensurate with the grade and status of the post.

General Responsibilities

1. To promote the mission, vision and values of New College Durham
2. To ensure effective communications within and between teams, be involved in and participate in meetings, team briefings, development days, etc.
3. To engage with line manager in regular appraisals and performance reviews against agreed objectives.
4. To be responsible for actively identifying own development needs
5. Staff must take reasonable care, and be aware of their responsibilities under the Health and Safety at Work etc. Act (1974) and to ensure that agreed safety procedures are carried out to maintain a safe environment for staff and visitors to the College.

Variation in the Role

Given the dynamic nature of the role and structure of New College Durham, it must be accepted that, as the College's work develops and changes, there will be a need for adjustments to the role and responsibilities of the post. The duties specified above are, therefore, not to be regarded as either exclusive or exhaustive. They may change from time to time commensurate with the grading level of the post and following consultation with the member of staff.

Equality and Diversity

The College is committed to equality and diversity for all members of society. The college will take action to discharge this responsibility but many of the actions will rely on individual staff members at New College Durham embracing their responsibilities with such a commitment and ensuring a positive and collaborative approach to Equality and Diversity. This will require staff to support the College's initiatives on Equality and Diversity which will include embracing development and training designed to enhance practices and the experiences of staff, students and visitors to the College with an all inclusive approach that celebrates differences. Failure to embrace these commitments may lead to formal action.

If you as a member of staff identify how you or the College can improve its practice on Equality and Diversity please contact the Equality and Diversity Officer in Human Resources 0191 375 4025. Alternatively if you wish for any support or assistance with regards to Equality and Diversity please again contact the above individual.

Commitment to Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups

New College Durham is committed to safeguarding & promoting the welfare of children and young people, as well as vulnerable adults, and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.
