RESTRICTIONS

Staff working at the College who have the opportunity for access to young persons are exempt from the provisions of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. If you have received any convictions, which for other purposes are 'spent' under the provisions of the Act, you are not entitled to withhold information and, in the event of employment, any failure to disclose such convictions could result in dismissal or disciplinary action by the Corporation. Any information given will be completely confidential and will be considered only in relation to your application for a position to which the order applies.

Is there any reason that you cannot work with children / young people (under 18 years of age) or with vulnerable adults? Yes No

Have you ever been refused employment, or had your employment terminated whilst working with children / young people (under 18 years of age) or with vulnerable adults? Yes No

Have you ever been subject to any formal investigation / police investigation whilst working with children / young people (under 18 years of age) or with vulnerable adults? Yes No

Do you have any cautions (including any final warnings or reprimands) or convictions which are not "protected" as defined by the Exceptions Order 1975* to the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974? Yes No

* As amended by the 2013 Exceptions Order

If yes, please give dates and details of any convictions:

Are there any other matters that may be relevant to your suitability to work for the College? (There is no obligation to disclose a protected caution or conviction as defined by the Exceptions Order 1975 * or any circumstances ancillary to that protected caution or conviction).

PREVENT AND FUNDAMENTAL BRITISH VALUES

New College Durham has a legal and moral obligation to ensure our staff and students are not exposed to views that conflict with, or undermine, fundamental British Values. All visitors should read the statements below and indicate if they agree, and then sign the declaration below.

The College is acting in the best interests of staff and students and not making any unfavourable judgement about visitors or their views and opinions.

I confirm that I will not incite an audience to violence, breach of the peace or racial hatred, and I understand that such words or actions are contrary to public orders and as such will not be regarded as lawful speech. Yes No

I confirm that I will respect the rights and freedom of others as protected by the law (for example, I must not make statements which are actionable or defamation). I will respect the freedom of speech of others and will ensure that no groups face unlawful discrimination as a result of my words or actions. Yes No

I confirm my support for fundamental British values including democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs. I fully understand that freedom of speech does not extend to individuals or organisations not committed to these values. Yes No

APPLICANT COMMITMENT TO SAFEGUARDING

This form must be read in full, signed and dated, and returned with your completed application form. Application forms returned without this signed declaration will not be accepted.

New College Durham is committed to safeguarding & promoting the welfare of children and young people, as well as vulnerable adults, and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. Successful applicants may be required to apply for Disclosure from the DBS.

Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974

Staff working at the College who have the opportunity for access to young persons, are exempt from the provisions of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974.

The College actively promotes equality of opportunity with the right mix of talent, skills and potential and welcomes applications from a wide range of candidates, including those with criminal records. The College selects all candidates for employment based on their skills, qualifications and experience, in comparison against a prepared personal specification.

For those positions where a Disclosure is required, staff are not entitled to withhold information regarding convictions. Any failure to disclose such convictions could result in dismissal or disciplinary action by the College. Where a Disclosure is to form part of the recruitment process, the College encourages all applicants called for interview to provide details of their criminal record at an early stage in the application process (i.e. via the application form).

Agreement Statement

I confirm that I have read, understood, and agreed with the New College Durham, Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups - Essential Recruitment & Selection Practice Policy; and the Policies for Safeguarding Young People and Adults at Risk (attached).

I confirm that I have read and understood the Department for Education document, 'Keeping Children Safe in Education: information for all school and college staff' (attached).

I confirm that I am not registered on the Children and/or Adults Barred List(s) held by the DBS (formerly held by the ISA), disqualified from work with children, or subject to any sanctions imposed by a regulatory body. I am aware that if applicable to the post I may be required to apply for, or allow New College Durham to take a copy of my disclosure certificate which will be retained and stored by the College in accordance with DBS (formerly CRB) Code of Practice'.

For the purposes of electronic communications, inclusion of your name in the Signature field below will be taken as acceptance of the above conditions.
