We are seeking to appoint an outstanding headteacher with a proven track record of success to build on the schools strengths and take it forward into the next stages of its development. Our current head is retiring after 17 years of strong and successful leadership and we are looking for a new headteacher to build on this. We are a successful, thriving school with a new building in the heart of our rural community.

The ideal candidate will share our values and ethos in 'Building life changing Relationships and Inspiring Success'.

You will:

- Drive and inspire the highest quality of Teaching and Learning
- Be highly visible and actively lead an inclusive school community
- Lead and develop our strong and motivated team
- Put Well Being and Self Belief at the centre of all we do
- Continue to develop our broad and balanced curriculum for the benefit of all our students that shows clear intent, implementation and impact
- Be an outstanding communicator
