

Job Description

Post Title:	Youth Justice Parenting Officer
Evaluation:	486 points	Grade: N6
Responsible to:	Youth Justice Team Manager
Responsible for:	N/A
Job Purpose:	To work directly with families as part of Youth Justice interventions to improve outcomes for both parents/cares, children and young people

Main Duties The following list is typical of the duties the postholder will be expected to perform. It is not necessarily exhaustive and other duties of a similar nature and level may be required from time to time.

1. Undertake direct work with families and young people, in the family home or other settings as required.
2. Offer support to families with a range of issues including parenting, child/parent relationship problems, teen to parent violence, domestic abuse, family dysfunction, substance use and health related concerns
3. Undertake planned and reactive work using a range of intervention methods and skills, underpinned by a trauma informed and systemic model of practice
4. Be clear about risk and alert managers to concerns about any risk to children or others
5. Participate in and develop a range of activities that will support Youth Justice Intervention Plans
6. When applicable the worker will be expected to;
 - Deliver parenting support for both statutory Parenting Orders and voluntary Parental Support Programmes
 - Attend Risk Meetings
 - Attend Intervention Planning Meetings
 - Attend Progress Meetings
 - Provide written information and/or reports to support Youth Justice assessments, reviews and plans
 - Attend Core/Care Groups Meetings
 - Liaise with other professionals and agencies
7. Build up close working links with other professionals working with families.
8. Contribute to service development through attendance and contribution to team meetings and team development activities.
9. Contribute to your own learning and development by using supervision and identifying appropriate development opportunities and attending training.
10. To promote and implement the Council's Equality Policy in all aspects of employment and delivery.