

Job Description - Class Teacher

Reports to the Head Teacher

Job Purpose

- The strategic direction and development of a Catholic school stems from the educational mission of the Church, which is reflected in the school's Mission Statement and School Improvement Plan.
- The teacher assists the Head Teacher and Leadership Group to develop a vision and strategic view for the school in its service to the community.

Main (Core) Duties

The Development of the School

Main Tasks

Work with the Head Teacher and Leadership Group in:

- Fulfilling the Mission Statement.
- Implementing the educational aims, policies, objectives and targets of the school.
- Teaching pupils at the school.
- Co-operating with the Head Teacher and Leadership Group in monitoring and evaluating the performance of the school and its achievements as a Catholic school.
- Motivating pupils through interest, encouragement and recognition of their unique value.
- Contributing to the production of the School Improvement Plan.
- Implementing the Governing Body's policies on equal opportunities.

Teaching and Learning

In a Catholic school the search for excellence is expressed in teaching and learning which responds to the needs and aspirations of its pupils and acknowledges their individual worth as children of God.

The Teacher works with the Head Teacher, Leadership Group and senior colleagues to provide effective teaching and learning throughout the school. They co-operate with the Head Teacher, Leadership Group and senior colleagues in monitoring and evaluating the quality of teaching and standards of attainment, using relevant data and setting targets for improvement.

Main Tasks

Work implementing, in collaboration with Head(s) of Department, other appropriate persons or bodies, a curriculum which:

- Follows the curriculum policy of the Governing Body and meets statutory requirements.
- Is relevant to the needs, experience, interests, aptitudes and stages of development of all pupils including those with special educational needs.
- Ensures the Diocesan policy on Religious Education is fulfilled.
- Fulfils the statutory duties in relation to the Curriculum including the National Curriculum.
- Includes arrangements for the daily act of collective worship in accordance with the norms of Catholic worship and the wider spiritual life of the school.

Work with the Head Teacher and Leadership Group in ensuring that:

- School policies on curriculum, assessment, recording and reporting are implemented in order to provide effective teaching and learning.
- The arrangements for teaching and learning form a co-ordinated, coherent curriculum entitlement for all pupils.
- Information on pupil progress is used to improve teaching and learning, to inform and motivate pupils, to inform parents, to provide necessary references for other educational institutions and employers and to aid governors in fulfilling their responsibilities for the school.
- There is continuity of learning and of progression for pupils.
- Challenging targets are set for pupil attainment leading to whole school improvement.

Work with the Head Teacher, Leadership Group and senior colleagues in providing a curriculum for the spiritual, moral, social, and cultural development of all pupils.

Work with the Head Teacher and Leadership Group in ensuring appropriate pastoral care and guidance for all, in accordance with the Mission Statement.

Work with the Head Teacher and Leadership Group in determining appropriate pupil groupings, which reflect the values of the Mission Statement.

Work with the Head Teacher and Leadership Group to determine and publicise the means for promoting:

- Pupil's self discipline
- Respect for self, others and authority
- Good behaviour on and off school premises.

Work with the Head Teacher and Leadership Group in promoting a school ethos, which extends opportunities for learning and encourages extra-curricular activities.

Efficient and Effective Deployment of Staff and Resources

In the Catholic school all deployment of staff, finance, material resources, time and energy should promote the common good of the community.

Work with the Head Teacher and Leadership Group in:

- Making the best possible use of the time and efforts of Classroom Assistants, Learning Support Assistants and other adults to enhance the learning of groups and individuals.
- Using resources, including time and energy, efficiently and effectively to meet the school's aims and objectives in accordance with the school's Mission Statement and School Development Plan.
- Providing an attractive environment, which expresses the Catholic identity of the school, stimulates learning and enhances the appearance of the school.

Wider Professional Effectiveness

Take responsibility for professional development by:

- Taking action to keep up to date in developments in the curriculum and teaching methods.
- Making good use of the outcomes of monitoring and the school's performance management arrangements in order to improve the quality of their teaching.

Accountability

In a Catholic school the teacher fulfils their responsibilities as specified by the Head Teacher, Leadership Group and senior colleagues and in accordance with school's Mission Statement.

In relation to the Governing Body:

- To assist in the exercising of its functions when requested.
- To attend meetings of and report to the Governing Body as required.

In relation to Parish and the Community:

Work with the Head Teacher and Leadership Group by helping to:

- Develop and maintain positive relationships with the parish communities.
- Ensure that the school recognises and meets its responsibilities in the life of the local community.
- Develop links with local employers for the benefit of the pupils and the school.
- Promote a positive image of the school in accordance with the Mission Statement.

In relation to the Diocese:

- To recognise the authority of the Bishop in relation to the provision of education in the Diocese.
- To work where required with Diocesan Authorities

In relation to parents and those with parental responsibility:

Work with the Head Teacher and Leadership Group in

- Building an effective partnership between the school and parents recognising them as the first educators of their children.
- Promoting understanding of the mission, aims and ethos of the school through provision of regular information to parents about:
 - The progress of their children;
 - The school curriculum;
 - Other matters relating to teaching methods and organisation.
- Opportunities for dialogue between parents and staff and for their involvement in the wider life of the school.
- In relation to National Government, the Local Education Authority and as directed by the Head Teacher and Leadership Group to cooperate with officers and support services; this to include inspection, monitoring and evaluation of the school.

In relation to other schools, universities, colleges and educational bodies

Work with the Head Teacher and Leadership Group:

- By promoting continuity of learning, progression of achievement and curriculum development.
- By arranging for effective transfer and induction of pupils.
- By maintaining effective liaison.
- By maintaining effective relationships with other schools, and especially with other Catholic schools in matters of common concern.
- By providing training and work experience placements for school, university and college students as appropriate and in accordance with school policy.