

Person Specification

Senior Transport Planner

Part A

The following criteria (experience, skills and qualifications) will be used to short-list at the application stage:

Essential

- Detailed knowledge of and the ability to use legislation, strategies and policies involved regarding transport planning.
- Detailed knowledge of and the ability to perform optioneering tasks and illustrate thought process in arriving at preferred solution
- Detailed knowledge of urban design and the principals of urbanism.
- Detailed knowledge of general arrangements.
- Detailed knowledge of the principles of sustainable transport
- Ability to use Microsoft Software packages
- Assist in preparing and/or reviewing development plans
- Assist in preparing and/or reviewing detailed transportation assessments
- Assist in the delivery of the Council's Transport Capital Programme.
- Ability to undertake public engagement and consultation exercises
- Ability to build and maintain good working relationships with key stakeholders, including and not limited to other Local Authorities and Central Government organisations.
- Experience of being accountable for the expenditure of very large budgets.
- Good working knowledge of CDM Regulations and Health & Safety legislation.

Desirable

- One or more of the following or equivalent: -
 - Post graduate qualification in planning/transport/transport planning/civil engineering
 - Am member of a professional body such as The Transport Planning Society or the Chartered Institute of Highways and Transportation
- Ability to use GIS/AutoCAD
- Evidence of assisting in the delivery of schemes relating to Low Traffic Neighbourhoods (LTN's) and or walking and cycling infrastructure

Part B

The following will be further explored at the interview stage:-

- Experience of delivering projects from inception to delivery/construction
- Knowledge of relevant and immerging legislation/policies/strategies relating to transport
- Experience of preparing and/or reviewing development plans
- Experience of preparing and/or reviewing detailed transportation assessments
- Experience of adhering to CDM Regulations and Health and Safety legislation

- Experience of using industry standard software
- Experience of developing and maintaining good relationships with key stakeholders
- Experience in making decisions or exercising initiative without reference to others