

PERSON SPECIFICATION
Post: Tees Valley Energy Project Manager

Qualifications and Experience
Criteria	Essential	Desirable	Method of Assessment
Qualifications and Education	A degree or equivalent in a science or economic discipline or the equivalent level of knowledge gained through demonstrable work experience.	Membership of a professional body Evidence of Continuous Professional Development in energy, partnership or associated sectors	Application
Experience and knowledge	Developing and managing capital investment programmes. Good knowledge of the sustainable energy sector, innovative solutions and low carbon policy. Experience of developing and delivering capital projects and business cases. Experience of working with a range of stakeholders from the public and private sectors.	Managing funding programmes for energy investment. Experience of developing and delivering projects within the low carbon, industrial, or energy arena Analytical and data intelligence experience	Application and Interview
Skills	Excellent interpersonal skills with the ability to lead, enthuse and convene effective partnerships. Excellent communication skills, able to share information and obtain information from others through written and verbal communication. Demonstrable critical analysis, prioritisation and problem-solving skills. Ability to robustly monitor progress and performance of projects and programmes. Good financial management and budgeting skills.	Proven ability to develop compelling business cases for investment.	Application and Interview

Personal Attributes	Able to demonstrate personal confidence and credibility to key stakeholders Ability to work with a range of stakeholders and negotiate clear directions Listens to others to assess requirements in order to respond appropriately and efficiently. Able to challenge constructively to achieve required goals	Able to demonstrate personal commitment to the net zero agenda.	Application and Interview