

Person Specification

Senior Transport Planner (Public Rights of Way Officer)

Part A

The following criteria (experience, skills and qualifications) will be used to short-list at the application stage:

Essential

- Detailed knowledge of issues concerning public rights of way including enforcement of statutory regulations.
- Detailed knowledge of managing budgets.
- Detailed knowledge of signage and the definitive map.
- Ability to use GIS.
- Ability to attend and contribute to meetings and working groups, including liaison with other directorates and external bodies.
- Ability to build and maintain good working relationships with key stakeholders, including and not limited to developers, statutory undertakers, contractors etc.

Desirable

- A member of a professional body such as Institute of Public Rights of Way and Access Management.

Part B

The following will be further explored at the interview stage:

- Detailed knowledge of issues concerning public rights of way including enforcement of statutory regulations.
- Detailed knowledge of managing budgets.
- Detailed knowledge of signage and the definitive map.
- Ability to use GIS.
- Ability to attend and contribute to meetings and working groups, including liaison with other directorates and external bodies.
- Ability to build and maintain good working relationships with key stakeholders, including and not limited to developers, statutory undertakers, contractors etc.