

Person Specification

Please note that it is absolutely essential that within your application you give evidence or examples in each of the appointment criteria listed under Part One of the Person Specification. It will also be helpful if you explain your motivation for and interest in applying for this post. At interview, these responses will be further developed and discussed along with elements in Part Two of the Specification

Post: Service Manager, Health Determinants Research Collaborative

Ref:

Part One

Experience

1. Track record of assisting in the leadership of a major service area that has delivered successful outcomes through collaboration, engagement and enablement of staff, service users and external partners (where appropriate)
2. Demonstrate a track record of leadership in the fields of data and intelligence, which has delivered tangible outcomes for an organisation and / or the public
3. Evidence of playing a key role in transforming the delivery of a service through strategic leadership, collaboration across services, and innovative change.
4. Demonstrate senior experience of using evidence-based practice to design, develop and/or monitor services and interventions associated with health and/or social outcomes

Skills, knowledge and aptitude

5. Demonstrate strong understanding of the role that the wider determinants of health play in population health outcomes and actions to address health inequalities
6. Demonstrates co-operative values and ways of working as well as experienced in challenging and persuading others to understand the benefits of this way of working.
7. Developed technical, professional and legislative knowledge and understanding of national policies, statutory requirements, relevant frameworks and accountabilities in a specified service.
8. Able to work effectively in a political environment with a high degree of political awareness and sensitivity, providing clear professional advice and rationale.

9. Established networks of influence which can be harnessed to support the work of the Council.

Part Two

Skills, knowledge and aptitude

1. Evidence of an open and collaborative style which values the contribution of others and motivates and enables them to achieve their potential and make a difference.
2. Able to analyse financial information and complex issues within a political environment utilising an evidence-based approach to understand the issues and work cooperatively to help service users meet their needs.
3. Able to be creative and innovative in delivering outcomes with a clear understanding of the values at the heart of how services and outcomes are delivered.
4. Excellent written and oral communication, presentation and critical influencing skills that can engage and facilitate collaborative working with a diverse range of audiences.
5. Personal and professional credibility with all stakeholders including service users and staff, partners, providers and elected members that inspire confidence in the Council.
6. Business acumen, and financial and risk management skills and a track record of transformation of services to deliver improved value for money and more efficient ways of delivering outcomes.
7. Evidence of playing a supporting role in transforming the delivery of an organisation through cultural change, strategic leadership, collaboration across services and partners

Disposition

Displays a personal commitment and leadership approach to delivering the council's values of:

- Proud
- Fair
- Ambitious

Special Requirements

1. Able to work whatever hours are reasonable and necessary.