Competency and Values Framework (CVF) for Policing: Level 2 – Middle Manager

Set out below are Cleveland Police Leadership Behaviours (2017) drawn from the College of Policing's Competency and Values Framework for Policing (2017). A candidate's behaviours/values will be measured at interview.

Competency	Level 2 – Middle Manager
Emotionally aware	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I consider the perspectives of people from a wide range of backgrounds before taking action. • I adapt my style and approach according to the needs of the people I am working with, using my own behaviour to achieve the best outcome. • I promote a culture that values diversity and encourages challenge. • I encourage reflective practice among others and take the time to support others to understand reactions and behaviours. • I take responsibility for helping to ensure the emotional wellbeing of those in my teams. • I take the responsibility to deal with any inappropriate behaviours.
Taking ownership	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I proactively create a culture of ownership within my areas of work and support others to display personal responsibility. • I take responsibility for making improvements to policies, processes and procedures, actively encouraging others to contribute their ideas. • I am accountable for the decisions my team make and the activities within our teams. • I take personal responsibility for seeing events through to a satisfactory conclusion and for correcting any problems both promptly and openly. • I actively encourage and support learning within my teams and colleagues.
Collaborative	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I manage relationships and partnerships for the long term, sharing information and building trust to find the best solutions. • I help create joined-up solutions across organisational and geographical boundaries, partner organisations and those the police serve. • I understand the local partnership context, helping me to use a range of tailored steps to build support. • I work with our partners to decide who is best placed to take the lead on initiatives. • I try to anticipate our partners' needs and take action to address these. • I do not make assumptions. I check that our partners are getting what they need from the police service. • I build commitment from others (including the public) to work together to deliver agreed outcomes.
Deliver, support and inspire	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I give clear directions and have explicit expectations, helping others to understand how their work operates in the wider context. • I identify barriers that inhibit performance in my teams and take steps to resolve these thereby enabling others to perform. • I lead the public and/or my colleagues, where appropriate, during incidents or through the provision of advice and support. • ensure the efficient use of resources to create the most value and to deliver the right impact within my areas. • I keep track of changes in the external environment, anticipating both the short- and long-term implications for the police service. • I motivate and inspire others to achieve their best.
Analyse critically	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I ensure that the best available evidence from a wide range of sources is taken into account when making decisions. • I think about different perspectives and motivations when reviewing information and how this may influence key points. • I ask incisive questions to test out facts and assumptions, questioning and challenging the information provided when necessary.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I understand when to balance decisive action with due consideration. • I recognise patterns, themes and connections between several and diverse sources of information and best available evidence. • I identify when I need to take action on the basis of limited information and think about how to mitigate the risks in so doing. • I challenge others to ensure that decisions are made in alignment with our mission, values and the Code of Ethics.
Innovative and open-minded	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I explore a number of different sources of information and use a variety of tools when faced with a problem and look for good practice that is not always from policing. • I am able to spot opportunities or threats which may influence how I go about my job in the future by using knowledge of trends, new thinking about policing and changing demographics in the population. • I am flexible in my approach, changing my plans to make sure that I have the best impact. • I encourage others to be creative and take appropriate risks. • I share my explorations and understanding of the wider internal and external environment.

Values	All Levels
Integrity	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I always act in line with the values of the police service and the Code of Ethics for the benefit of the public. • I demonstrate courage in doing the right thing, even in challenging situations. • I enhance the reputation of my organisation and the wider police service through my actions and behaviours. • I challenge colleagues whose behaviour, attitude and language falls below the public's and the service's expectations. • I am open and responsive to challenge about my actions and words. • I declare any conflicts of interest at the earliest opportunity. • I am respectful of the authority and influence my position gives me. • I use resources effectively and efficiently and not for personal benefit.
Impartiality	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I take into account individual needs and requirements in all of my action. • I understand that treating everyone fairly does not mean everyone is treated the same. • I always give people an equal opportunity to express their views. • I communicate with everyone, making sure the most relevant message is provided to all. • I value everyone's views and opinions by actively listening to understand their perspective. • I make fair and objective decisions using the best available evidence. • I enable everyone to have equal access to services and information, where appropriate.
